Here's a small selection of what people are saying about speaker, architect, and author Karen Webb:

"Karen Webb is a dynamic speaker. She offers eight clear and easy-to-follow steps to create a life of happiness, passion, and purpose."

- Marci Shimoff, #1 NY Times Bestselling author of Happy For No Reason, Love For No Reason, and Chicken Soup For The Woman's Soul.

"Karen Webb is a dynamic speaker who gives a memorable presentation! She brings energy, expertise, and heart to her talk, leaving the audience spellbound! I loved her explanation of femininity and how we can let go of our childlike version and redefine it as grown women."

-Jackie Cohen, conference attendee

"Karen Webb's business expertise regarding women in the workplace was eye-opening and memorable. She had everyone on the edge of their seats! Great information sprinkled with fun stories."

Shawna Miller, conference attendee and designer

"Unapologetically Karen, brings excellent design advice! I thoroughly enjoyed her talk and will remember her key points!"

Michael Taylor, conference attendee and entrepreneur

"The most brilliant people I know have the gift of applying whatever their particular expertise is to other areas of our lives. Metaphors about life abound with Karen Otis. Foundations, windows, doors; they are not just for buildings any more! Just as in painting a room or structure successfully, a stellar paint job is all in the preparation, preparation, preparation. That is apt for all areas of life; it's rarely the final step — slapping the paint on — that determines mastery. Ms. Webb, Brava!"

- Ellen Snortland, author and filmmaker "Beauty Bites Beast"

"They say home is where your heart is, but what if your heart and house are falling apart? As a journalist, I seek compelling stories and Karen's divorce comeback and her step-by-step life-building process she's honed from her home-building expertise will put the soul back in your dreams and truly ground her home with your heart."

- Tammy McDuff, Feature Reporter for Hews Media Group-Community News- Winner of Eight L.A. Press Club Awards

The Speaker's presentation was VERY well-organized and thought out. I love how Karen Webb shared her life experience with us. It was so honest, and it encouraged us all to look into ourselves.

- Heather Manzo, seminar attendee

What a powerful seminar! It helped me to realize that I do have a desire to be more- -that I can push through the status quo. If I didn't take this seminar, I would never have realized this at all!
